Preston Grinnell was called home from Chicago by the illness of his father. He will remain a month or more.
Wonder why Lida Haynes has such a brilliant complexion and why such bright smiles wreath her ruby lips?
Mr. Dick Braughn has returned to Louisville, but it only requires a certain magnet to induce him to "come again."
Gordon Moorman was here last week drumming for a grocery house. Yes! he was drumming for a heart too if I am not mistaken.
Miss Lizzie Rawlings will leave Kansas City shortly for home. Her health is very much improved, and we all are ready with a cordial greeting.
Miss Lena Richardson has been quite sick and Mrs. Dr. Dowden has been on the sick list. Dr. Dowden realizes that "Joan and Darby" of fourth reader renown, has more truth than poetry in it.
Mr. Nevitt's friends are more than rejoiced at his big majority. If I wasn't for R. H. Nevitt I couldn't write for this column, so your correspondent informed me. An excellent ticket was elected and the people are bound to admit it.
Your regular correspondent is worn out watching by the bedside of her sick husband, and I am trying to supply her place for this paper, but as I'm a novice in the business, don't expect anything racy or spicy. I can't imagine how she collects such a weekly bundle. I'm at my wits to send even a fagot of reasonable dimension.

There are mighty few fellows who put up that $15 that could set down now and give you a written opinion as to why they came to do it.
Carl Richardson, the Democratic nominee for County Court Clerk, was in town Monday receiving the congratulations of his friends.
A defeated candidate in a Democratic primary election feels certain akin to that other fellow who hasn't a friend on the flat side of creation.
It only takes 15 minutes and a little money to change your old watch for a good one that will keep time all the year round.—T. C. Lewis & Co.
The trouble about a Democratic primary is that the blamed thing is likely to get out of repair just about the time you are ready for her to go off.
Jabe Jordan hasn't concluded which would pay him the best, running for office or raising elephants. Either, he thinks, though, would lead to bankruptcy.
At a Democratic Mass Convention held at the court house last Saturday, Lee Bishop was nominated for constable, and Junius Marshall for magistrate in this district.
Len Cashman was here the other day shaking his big fat sides over the way in which some of the boys, himself among the number, got fooled. Len's a good Democrat.
Dr. J. C. Bush will be in Hardinsburg, April 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20. Positively no longer. Will be prepared to fill your teeth as well as extract them without pain by a new process.
Owing to circumstances the Ephworth League thought it best to postpone the library social until the 17th instead of the 10th, as it was previously announced. The spiritual meeting will occur the 10th.
Gus Brown is nothing, if he's not a Democrat. He made a strong race for County Attorney, and when he ascertained his defeat wrote his opponent a letter congratulating him on his success, and saying he would help put him in, in November.
The literary department of the Ephworth League promises to be an interesting department of that organization.
The 23rd of this month being Shakespeare day, the league will celebrate the occasion. The observance of it will occur on the 24th, that being the next regular meeting.
Notice.
I handle all kinds of steel and iron roofing, imitation-brick siding, and repair all kinds of tinware. All kinds of carpenter's work done. Call and get prices.
JOHN M. LEWIS.
The Last Charter Member.

Miss Allie Greenwood requested me to say that she was ahead at Miss Argent Mercer of Rosetta, for she has tomato plants large enough to set out, and lots of young chickens nearly big enough to fry.
Mr. and Mrs. Jake Miller wish to express their many thanks to the people of this vicinity for being so kind and helping in the last illness of their beloved babe, Dennis Monroe, who departed this life March 19, 1894.
Weep not dear parents for your babe now lies in its happy home up in the skies. This short life will soon be over, then you'll meet your loved one on that beautiful shore.
And if your loved one God does take, His answer to thy heart, Be sure that he will quickly make Your troubles all depart.
I have been informed that the cold spell did not kill all of the fruit in this section, but it is feared what little the freeze has left is all blasted and will drop off.
The wheat is injured a great deal especially on wet land where I notice in many places it is all gone. All young clover and about half of the tobacco plants were killed. Oats, too, look very bad and some of our farmers have been reaping the past week.

Owensboro District Conference.

The Owensboro district Sunday-school conference, M. E. church, South, will be held at Livermore, commencing Thursday, April 19, at 9 a. m. The district convention will be held at the same place, commencing Thursday, April 19, at 8 a. m. Two days will be given to each. Let no minister or layman remain away. Come, and come in time. Much of success depends on a full attendance. Brethren in the ministry must not fail to have the quarterly conference records at the district conference. Editors and connectional officers are cordially invited.

DRURY'S
BREEDING STOCK

In offering to the public the services of the following breeding stock, we do not hesitate to say that we believe it to be as good as can be found in the state. Not only well bred on the side of their sires, but equally as well through their dams, a very important thing in a breeder.

Bourbon Denmark.

No. N. S. H. R.
Was sired and foaled at Lexington, Ky. This high styled Kentucky Saddle Horse on the sire's side, clear back to thoroughbreds. On his dam's side, he has some of the best crosses of saddle families to be had, strongly backed up by thoroughbreds, both on sire and dam's side.

PEDIGREE.

BOURBON DENMARK was sired by Fayette Denmark, he by Ned Gaine's Denmark, he by richmond Diamond, he by imported Hedgeford, 1st dam by Ball Stocking, 2d dam by Davy Crockett, 3d dam by Hopok, 4th dam by Bertrand, 5th dam by Highlander.

NOTE—You will notice from this renowned sire's breeding that he is backed up by the strongest families of Denmarks on the sire's side, clear back to thoroughbreds. On his dam's side, he has some of the best crosses of saddle families to be had, strongly backed up by thoroughbreds, both on sire and dam's side.

DESCRIPTION.

BOURBON DENMARK is a beautiful bay, 16 hands high, and has as much natural style as any stallion in the state, and is as true a breeder as can be found. He breeds his colts with style and finish, solid colors and plenty of also. Breeds very strongly after himself, eight out of every ten going the game by the mother's side. He transmits his saddle qualities very readily, because his sires are all natural and not acquired. He goes all the game easily, but especially to be admired, is his running walk.

Jack, Canary Bird.

CANARY BIRD is inbred Black Warrior, black with mealy points. Is of fine carriage and splendid action, with heavy bone. As a breeder of next-class males, his character is well known.
TERMS.
Bourbon Denmark, $10.00 to insure a living colt, payable when colt is foaled. If mare should be sold or traded off, the money will be due at time of sale or parting therefrom.
Canary Bird, $5.00 to insure a live colt, payable when colt is foaled. If mare should be sold or traded off, the money will be due at the time of sale or parting therefrom. No responsibility for accidents or escapes. Mares kept on easy terms.
CHAS. H. DRURY,
BEWLEYVILLE, KY.

A GREAT BARGAIN.
